Question -1:

HTML Stands for Hyper Text Markup langauge

Hyper Text :- is a text which as link to another page.

Markup Language:- No need to setup the extra environment.all the instrucations are passed through the tags.

Features:

1.ALL instruaction are passed through tags.

2. tags are predefined in html.

3.tags are case-sensitive.

4.we can write the own tags.

5.we can use nest tags.

Question -2:To add the extra information to the tags

Rules:

1. It will be separated by +
2. The value should be written within "".
3. We should be write in starting tag.
4. It will be in the form of key-value

Image Attributes:

It contains attributes are src,height,width,alt .

Question -3:

1.Inline Elements:

The element which start in the same line occupies as much of space it requires.

2.Block Level Element:-

The element which start in the next line occupies the complete space.

Question 4:

To embed an image ina n HTML

<img>non-container

<img src="img.jpg">

Question-5:

To create a table in that we use table tag

<table></table>non-conatiner tag.

->colspan: to merge two or more column.

->rowspan: to merge two or more rows.

<tr></tr>create row

<th></th>header with bold

<td></td>data